Hi Tyson, My name is Jason Kaeser, I am the Store Manager of the Harry Browns Merchant Trader at Yamanto in Ipswich. I also have a small vineyard and winery, or should I say, I had a small vineyard and winery on the bank of Lockyer Creek until the flood took it all yesterday. My wife and I are absolutely heartbroken but so grateful that we just made it out alive with our three dogs. Through our two Harry Browns stores I would like to donate a total of 4 dozen bottles of wines, I will contact you as soon as possible with a list of the wines and retail value and will be contacting my suppliers and friends to support this as well. Kind Regards, Jason Kaeser, Kaeserberg Vineyard and Winery

We have also kicked off of our own initiative and until the end of Feb we will be contributing money from every case sold from the winery cellar to the RURAL FLOOD APPEAL. Hi Tyson, I would love to help and will donate a dozen case of wine for the cause, I have already pledged 2 dozen reserve wines to all the business that we deal with in Brisbane that have been affected by the floods which could run up to $13,000 to $20,000 dollars of wine if they are to take me up on my offer. The devastation has been horrendous and if I can do something to help I am happy. We too have just had 200 ml of rain in the past four days as well, we will know more today what the damage to the community is but it will be nothing like Brisbane. As many areas, we will be lucky if we can get the vineyard through this year, the wet is taking a toll on all of us. Mate I am glad to hear that you are OK. Cheers, Mark. www.summerfieldwines.com

Hello again Tyson, You guys are doing a great job pulling all this together. We are happy to donate to the cause, listed below is what I'm thinking to donate. I hope this is OK. The Blanc de Blancs is a Tasting Room product only and made using the old traditional method so I thought this might be a bit special (plus Glaetzer making a bubble at all is pretty unusual). Shiraz is just a good solid easy drinking wine. With Ben's wine I've selected his two current releases, both have great accolades and reviews and they are only a very limited release, so I think whoever gets them will be pleased. If you think I would be better sending something else (different varietal like Malbec or Petit Verdot) or some older vintages please let me know and I'll happily change it. Donation: Gipsie Jack Wine Company (John Glaetzer and Ben Potts): 1/ 1 Dozen Sparkling Blanc de Blanc Retail Value $384.00 ($32 per bottle). 2/ 1 Dozen Shiraz Retail Value $216.00 ($18 per bottle). Ben Potts Wines: 1/ 6 Pack 2006 'Fiddles Block' Shiraz (Limited Release) Retail Value $240 ($40 per bottle). 2/ 6 Pack 2006 "Lenny's Block" Cabernet (Limited Release) Retail Value $240 ($40 per bottle). Thanks again for organising, Lisa www.thewinehouse.com.au

Dear Tyson and Mark, Wine from one flood area to another... We can really relate to the problems in Qld, - we are completely cut off, and the team has sand-bagged the doors of the winery. One dam has burst its banks and the main dam is only a foot from the top of the wall – our winery is directly below! We have lost all our Cabernet and about half of the rest of the vineyard, however after seeing the disaster up north our problems seem pretty trivial. We are more than happy to donate a mixed red (over $350) and a mixed white (over $200). A really great initiative. All the best, Matthew www.mountavoca.com

Hi Tyson, We plan to give you a six pack of 2009 Caillard Mataro. The value is $45 a bottle. We have also donated $$ to the flood appeal through Woolworths - if we donate $1 they match it - so it makes sense to double the value of our donation. Perhaps you could put the cash into that appeal too to optimise your effort? Not sure if that works but could find out. If there is anything I can do, let me know. Regards Andrew. www.langtons.com.au

Hi Tyson, Congrats on getting the Flood Relief Raffle initiative up and running. Although, the Oyster Bay office based at the Albion Park Raceway in Brisbane was flood ravaged with very little equipment salvaged our loss cannot be compared to the many families and households that were severely affected. It is our pleasure to provide a small amount of stock to support the raffle. We would be happy to donate two cases of Oyster Bay Sauvignon 2010 valued at $240 each for the appeal. Kind regards, Kelly www.oysterbay.com

Hi Tyson, Thanks for writing. I have seen your campaign being launched and would be happy for you to use pictures from our vineyard. I'll send some through directly. Unfortunately, things are far from settled down. Today, the river is at it's third highest peak ever recorded, which is now the third flood in less than 12 months. The water is predicted to stay at this height for several days before starting to recede. We finished picking Chardonnay grapes on Saturday and transporting them out by barge, 2 bins at a time. Ironically, it's the largest Chardonnay crop we've produced. Dana www.riversandswines.com
