New wine and food explorer's guide

VisitVineyards.com is a new comprehensive guide for wine and food explorers providing up-to-date information, news and reviews of the best regional wine and food travel experiences across Australia.

VisitVineyards.com brings together more than 30,000 wine, food and travel experiences across every Australian wine and food region.

It helps travellers discover what's going on, the places and products not to be missed and current information about their next wine or culinary destination.

There are more than 7000 Victorian businesses already listed on the site, with a strong representation of wine, food and leisure experiences in key wine regions such as Mornington Peninsula, Yarra Valley and the Goldfields.

Users of VisitVineyards.com can search the site free-of-charge and will soon be able to craft an itinerary to suit their specific interests – whether it be visiting a winery for a degustation lunch; staying overnight at a secluded retreat; sampling homemade chocolates from a local chocolatier; playing golf at a local club; or a combination of them all.

VisitVineyards.com also has a free monthly e-newsletter which includes offers at featured wineries, restaurants, accommodations and other travel experiences.
